Subject: Declaration regarding academic requirements and relieving from MBA College for joining company

I, Anmol Singh Yadav, son/daughter of Suresh Chandra, a bonafide student of MBA (4th Semester) at PSIT, with roll number 2401640700087, hereby solemnly declare as under:

1. That I have been selected/received an offer to join Direct Credit as a part of my career advancement and the date of joining is _____.
2. That I fully understand that relieving from the college for joining the said company does not exempt me from my academic responsibilities.
3. That I shall complete/attend all academic requirements prescribed by the college/university, including submission of assignments, projects, reports, attendance in tests, examinations, internal assessments, and any other academic/administrative requirements.
4. That I undertake to maintain discipline and abide by all the rules and regulations of the college/university during this period.
5. That I shall be solely responsible for any consequences arising from non-compliance with the above requirements.
6. That this declaration is made voluntarily and with full understanding to facilitate issuance of relieving permission from the college for joining the said company.

I hereby request the authorities to kindly grant me the necessary permission/relieving for the same.
